Address SPENCER COOPER, Hazel Green, Ky.

A. P. Lacy was taken suddenly ill on Wednesday morning last.

Fletcher McGuire made a flying trip to Owingsville this week.

Elder J. T. Pieratt will preach at Tom's Branch next Sunday morning.

Mrs. Mason Jones, of Daysboro, has our thanks for some fine onions and beets.

Misses Cora and Lennie Combs are visiting relatives and friends at St. Helens.

A Miss Dale, of Montgomery county, is the guest of Misses Ida and Sabina Taulbee.

D. D. Sublitt, of Salyersville, passed through town Tuesday en route home from Campton.

Newspapers that have not already done so, will please add Hazel Green Fair to their lists, and September 27-30 as the date.

Mrs. Rilda Day, who has been the guest of Mrs. Eliza Swango, at Frankfort, for a few weeks past, returned home Monday evening.

J. T. Day, who returned from a pleasant visit to Crab Orchard last week, and who has since been suffering with something like flux, is now improving.

The track at the Fair grounds is now in prime condition for training, the amphitheatre has been repaired, and everything points to a successful meeting this fall.

O. K. Dearing, who recently accepted a position with J. T. Day & Co., has brought his family here from Fleming county and will make this their future home.

Miss Lula Kash, of this place, and Miss Florence Stephens, of Mt. Sterling, were last week visiting the family of their old friend, John A. Adams, at Lexington.

Rose & Jones have added to their already large stock of merchandise a nice lot of furniture, and persons who are in need of furniture would do well to see their goods and prices before purchasing elsewhere.

The public school at this place, with Prof. J. G. Thomas as teacher, will open on Monday next, and Mr. Thomas requests that parents will be prompt in sending their children that they may be properly classified.

The quarterly meeting of the M. E. church, South, will be held at Lacy Creek school house this Saturday and Sunday, and all members of the church and others interested in religious work are invited to be present.

Mrs. Ellen Pieratt, who has been visiting relatives and friends at Lexington and St. Helens, returned home Tuesday evening much pleased with her trip. She thinks Lexington is a beautiful place, and tell us that the family of our old friend, John A. Adams, are all well.

The District committee of the Tenth Congressional district, a meeting held at Mt. Sterling last week, decided to hold the district convention at Estill Springs, Estill county, on Wednesday, August 31, 1892, at 9 A. M. A full report of the committee meeting will appear on our first page next week.

See the advertisement of the hack line between this point and Rothwell. This line is now run by Messrs. Tabor & DeBuck, and they each have four or five good animals so that there is every reason to believe they will each day have a fresh team on the road. The convenience of traveling on the hack is something to commend it to all.

Godsey Wins the Contest.

A piece of catchy music by the band and then Henry L. Godsey, of Hazel Green, Ky., Centre College's standard bearer, was introduced. His subject was "Shall We Distrust?" It proved to be the winning speech, and the Press takes pleasure in publishing it exclusively this morning elsewhere in its columns. The speech speaks for itself, and we pass it by without comment. Mr. Godsey has the presence of an orator. He is small of stature, but compactly made, and his head is Websterian in breadth of forehead and its look of intellectuality. He is graceful in gesture and bearing, and possesses the finest voice that ever found lodgment in the throat of so young an orator. His style of oratory is pleasing and of that kind that catches and impresses the masses. Unquestionably he deserved the first prize.—Lex. Press.

Where Did They Get Them?

CAMPTON, July 11, 1892.

At an examination held at this place July 1 and 2, there were forty applicants entered. During the examination two withdrew, caused by sickness, and the remaining thirty eight all obtained certificates, but every indication pointed that a great many of the applicants had by some means obtained or secured the State Board questions, and I hope the Legislature will change the mode of examinations or arrange them in some way that some protection should be shown to young ladies and gentlemen who are trying to qualify themselves against non-professional teachers. In such unfair examinations a fair test of the abilities of teachers is not obtained.

EXAMINER.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, U. S. }
WASHINGTON July 11, 1892. }

To the Democrats of the Tenth Congressional District: My physician admonishes me that such a canvass as I would wish to make might be attended with great injury to my health and prescribes rest. In announcing that I am not a candidate for re-election, I do so with no doubt about my friends being a majority of the district. I need hardly assure them of my deep sense of gratitude, nor that, if my health is restored in time, I will give my support to the nominee, whoever he may be, not in the camp, but in the field wherever the flag of my party waves.

Your obedient servant,

JO. M. KENDALL.

The following is a list of the jurors serving at the present term of Circuit court: Grand jury—T. M. Brown, foreman; W. T. McNabb, Elias Shockey, T. R. Horton, J. H. Amyx, W. E. McPherson, S. C. Oliver, W. L. Bush, W. Z. Miller, Dennis Brewer, W. P. Lacy, Stephen Collier. Petit jury—J. E. Drake, Geo. Beasley, S. M. Tyler, J. B. Spencer, Geo. Brewer, W. T. Oliver, Wm. Hatton, J. M. Cockerham, Jr., E. C. Jones, J. H. Drake, G. F. Byrd, Jonathan Watson, Lewis Hatton, J. M. Swango, Sam Allen, G. C. Baker, C. C. Long, Jack Alexander, W. H. Tutt, David Banks, Thomas Tolson, Sr., Boone Center, James Tumbilin, Elias Reynolds.

J. F. Pelfrey, representing Maple Grove Nurseries, of Waterloo, N. Y., is now in the county soliciting orders for fruit and ornamental trees of every variety, and the people of Wolfe should avail of the chance thus offered to secure fine fruit. The time will soon be that the men who own fine orchards in this country will make more money than all their neighbors who farm. Mr. Pelfrey is from Johnson county, in our own State, and you will take no risks in ordering from him, as you might with a stranger from another State.

One of the handsomest presents we have received in a long while came to us on Tuesday evening last from Capt. W. P. Sample, of Maytown. It was a box of nice ripe peaches for our better I, and our appreciation of them is beyond expression in words. May you live long and prosper, Captain, and all of your descendants prove as good Democrats as yours—If. There, now, if we could make a better wish we don't know it.

There will be a meeting held at the residence of Rev. Isaac Murphy on Sunday, the 7th day of August, at which time the funeral of his wife and two sons will be preached. Revs. Johns, Adams and Savage will officiate. Friends of the family are cordially invited to be present. Dinner will be provided for all who attend, but those who are disposed to do so can bring baskets with them.

The attendance of Hazel Green citizens at Lexington Chataqua last Friday night, when Henry L. Godsey carried away the honors in the oratorical contest, was quite large.

An Unfortunate Woman.

Mrs. Mary Markham was sent to Campton this morning by the Charity Organization, where she will be given a home by her brother James Hall. Mrs. Markham's former home is in Bannock, Va., where she has been confined to the insane asylum until a few weeks ago. After being discharged as cured she found that her husband had deserted her, and the trouble so preyed on her mind that she again became demented. Wandering from home, she came to Louisville in the hope of finding her brother. He was located at Campton, as above stated.—Louisville Post.

Physicians Couldn't Cure. X
BEDAMSVILLE, Hamilton Co., Ohio, June, 1892.
One bottle of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic cured me entirely, after physicians had tried unsuccessfully for 8 months to relieve me of nervous debility.
W. HUENNEFELD.

UNIONVILLE, Mo., January, 1891.
I can sincerely say that Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic has acted wonderfully; since my boy commenced to use it he has not had the slightest symptoms of fits and is getting stout and hearty; every one is surprised at the result, because I had bought eight bottles of medicines from New York at $4.00 per bottle which did no good.
